

ICA Corporate Member

What is a Corporate Member?

Companies engaged in the business of paying health, disability, long-term care, life or annuity claims are considered to be eligible for corporate membership. Those companies would include BlueCross Blue Shield Organizations, Managed Care Organizations, Reinsurers, Third Party Administrators and Life and Health insurers.

International Claim Association®
LEADING THE WAY IN CLAIM EXCELLENCE

Membership Benefits

Benefits for ICA Corporate Member Companies and Employees of Member Companies

- Annual Education Conference: One of the largest educational conferences in the industry, the ICA Annual Education Conference provides an opportunity to participate in workshops and seminars and discuss claim administration issues. The conference typically offers over 70 concurrent workshops in two days on various claim administration tracks such as Life, Health, Long-Term Care, Annuities, Disability, Fraud, Legal and Management/Compliance.
- Claims Education Program: The ICA Claims Education Program is tailored to meet the needs of the claims professional. The program consists of a two tiered curriculum: Associate, Life and Health Claims and Fellow, Life and Health Claims. Each is designed to advance the knowledge and technical skills of claims professionals. Graduates earn an official ALHC or FLHC designation.
- Enhanced Professional Prestige: Members who receive their ALHC and FLHC designations are recognized as having achieved advanced training and education in the claims industry.
- Law Enforcement Inquiries: ICA is the only resource for Federal, State, and Local law enforcement agencies to determine if a life insurance policy is a possible motive for the death of an individual. These timely inquiries can save your organizations hundreds of thousands of dollars in fraudulent or otherwise unpayable claims.
- Members Only Website: Members receive a user ID and password that enables access to the Members Only area of the ICA website, where many member benefits can be found. These include electronic versions of publications, membership directory, and links to state and federal bureaus, claim resources and industry organizations.
 - ♦ Speaker Presentations from Previous Annual Education Conferences: Accessible through the ICA Annual Education Conference website, these presentations are valuable resources that allow the opportunity to enjoy the benefits of past Annual Education Conferences.
 - ♦ Law Reports: These valuable reference materials cover legal topics of interest to those in the claims profession. Some sample reports include: The missing insured and death claim; Premium Receipts; Requirements for Establishing Defense of Misrepresentation; Occupational Clauses; Divorce and Beneficiary Designation; and Coverage of Losses Incurred During or Related to Criminal Acts.
 - ♦ Educational Workshop Reports from Annual Conferences: These annual reference materials cover topics of interest to those in the claims profession. The reports cover current issues and trends in the Life, Health and Disability product areas. Previous reports have included Money Laundering – A Threat to the Insurance Industry; Contestable Claims & Misrepresentation in 1035 Exchanges; Telemedicine Reimbursement and Vocational Rehabilitation, More than Just Dollars.
 - ♦ Quarterly Newsletter: The ICA News is published electronically on a quarterly basis to keep members current on industry issues and trends.
- Networking Opportunities: Through involvement in ICA committees and attendance at the ICA committee meetings and Annual Education Conference, ICA provides a forum for the exchange of information which members find extremely beneficial.

Benefits That Improve Your Companies' Bottom Line

- Corporate Recognition on ICA website.
- 40% Discounts for Annual Education Conference Attendees.
- Law Enforcement Inquiries (LEI's) distributed to member companies from Federal, State and Local law enforcement agencies regarding fraudulent or suspicious claims that can save hundreds of thousands of dollars in fraudulent claims.
- Access to Committee Reports and Law Reports via the "Members Only" section of the ICA website.
- Annual corporate dues of $1,000 that covers membership for all employees of the company.